DEALERS.

Frankfort, Ky., January 19.—Automobile salesmen in counties containing cities of the first or second class will have to pay an annual license fee of Oliver of Allen County is enacted by the General Assembly. The measure provides that all revenue thus derived shall go into a "good roads" fund, the license fees collected in a county to be expended on the roads in that county.

TO INVESTIGATE PRICE FIXING.

"The department of commerce will conduct an inquiry during this year into the fixing of retail prices by manufacturers if sufficient funds are available," according to Secretary Redfield in his address before the Lansing board of commerce. "The decision of the Supreme Court, making it unlawful for manufacturers to fix retail prices, settles the present law, but the wisdom or unwisdom of the new law and the economic profit or loss by the practice are not yet settled," said the Secretary. "There are men who are sincere foes of monopoly who incline to the belief that under economic laws, which are greater than statutes, the broad prohibition of the right to fix retail prices by manufacturers tends to create monopoly instead of being a movement toward relief from monopoly," continued Mr. Redfield. "There is no thought of questioning the decision. For the guidance, however, of future legislation it is desirable that the economic question be worked out."—Springfield Republican.

THE CONSPIRACY TO REDUCE

LEAF TOBACCO PRICES.

The prices of tobacco on all markets in the Blue Grass counties this year have been disappointing to the farmers. The Democrat advised growers before the season opened to scale down their expectations, the chief reason for the anticipation of low prices being founded on the prospects for a crop of inferior quality. The shortness of the crop could not atone for its inferior quality so far as prices were concerned, because manufacturers were well stocked from the splendid crop of the year before. The reasons therefore, now apparent for low prices are, well stocked manufacturers, poor quality, unsteady money market. A fourth will be added by many who have kept tab on the different markets, namely, an evident "gentlemen's agreement" among manufacturers not to pay more than a certain price. Local buyers are not to blame. They must obey instructions from headquarters.

It is possible that there may be an upward trend before the season closes. There usually is at the end. But the price has evidently been fixed for this year, and $12.50 all around will not miss it far.

Tobacco has been the "money crop" for the farmers of the Blue Grass. But there are other crops. Corn is likely to sell well always. Hogs are as fine as silk. Cattle will never be low. With unsatisfactory prices for tobacco, and an evident combination against the grower despite the so-called dissolution of the Trust, farmers may well turn their attention to other things if there is more profit in them. In any event, there is no cause for worry so long as a hungry world is clamoring to be fed. —Cynthiana Democrat.

General Villa is the next Mexican usurper and bandit who will have to have the rollers put under him. He's a cut throat of the deepest dye and that he will meet the common end of all bad Mexicans there is not a single doubt.

Several factories have closed, and low tariff journals says that it is not a reduction of duties that has stopped the wheels. What is it then? Have they stopped just in order to annoy the administration? Where are the indictments? Does the administration hang fire, as a certain department did in a California case?

TAFT FOR THE SUPREME BENCH

If President Wilson appoints Professor Taft to be chief justice of the Supreme Court we may expect Theodore to throw a few more picturesque fits, but the chances are that the country at large would approve the choice.

Ex-President Taft has the "judicial temperament" well developed and would be thoroughly at home on the bench. Indeed he would have escaped much heart-burning and disappointment if he had never left it.

The elimination of politics from the Supreme bench, to which Mr. Taft himself so largely contributed, effectually disposes of any adverse argument based on political differences.

There is no question that Mr. Taft would adorn the bench, for which, he is so well fitted, and there is no doubt that he would be a staunch upholder of the Constitution, of which he has always been a fearless defender.—Erie (Pa.) News.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE.

Love Will Find a Way.

She changed her name from Snippeldross

To something sounds like Gunko,

The first did always rhyme with hoss,

The latter rhymed with bunco.

"Oh, Bismarck," she whispered fearfully as soon as he had hung up his hat and coat. "I fear all is over between us."

"What!" he exclaimed, "can you mean that all between us is over?"

"I can!" she sobbed. "I told papa last night that you are an actor, and he swore that no such thing shall ever marry into his family. He said he would come down into the parlor tonight and find out for himself."

"Let him!" cried her lover. "I will recite Antony's after-dinner speech over the body of Caesar for him and then he'll be glad enough to have me in his old family, I trust!"

At the moment the portieres parted and Mr. Snippeldross stood in the doorway, his brows drawn in a frown and one foot ready for instant use.

"Ah-hah and so!" he cried. "You are the young—"

"Just one moment, sir!" interrupted Bismarck Gunko, in so confident yet so respectful a voice that Mr. Snippeldross paused in surprise.

Without pausing for more parley Bismarck launched immediately into Antony's oration, which took him, what with gestures and all, fully fifteen minutes. He paused, out of breath but triumphant.

"Take her, with my blessings," said Mr. Snippeldross, preparing to leave the room again, rather apologetically. "My mistake, young man—you're no actor!"

Almost noiselessly the young people fell into each other's arms.—Louisville Times.

NEW YORK'S $30,000,000 MUSEUM GROUP.

(American Machinist)

Steps have been taken to found a group of museums in New York City, to be known as "The Museums of the Peaceful Arts." The group is to consist of 20 buildings, and when completed will constitute the greatest institution of its kind in the world. It is expected that articles of incorporation will be filed within a few days. A site is to be procured sufficient to meet the needs of the entire project, but in the beginning only one or two buildings will be erected. The entire cost of the group is estimated at about $30,000,000, and the annual maintenance charges at between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000.

It is proposed that the museum shall be divided into the following branches: Electricity, steam, astronomy, navigation, safety, appliances, aviation, mechanical arts, agriculture, mining, labor, efficiency, historic records, health and hygiene, textiles, ceramics and elays, architecture, scenic embellishment, gardening, roads and road-building materials, commerce and trade, printing and books. In addition, there will be a central library containing books and periodicals relating to the subjects of the museums.

This is the first project looking toward the establishment of a museum of science and industry to take definite form in the United States. The outline is splendid in its breadth and scope; if carried through to completion, this museum will be a worthy companion of the two other great museums in New York City.

A meeting of the managers and owners of teams in the Ohio State League will be held in Lexington at the Phoenix Hotel Tuesday for the purpose of organizing for the coming season. The meeting will be for one day only and it is expected that the greater part of the time will be taken up with business sessions, the signing up of the teams that will be in the league and the making of preparations for the coming season. It is also probable that a committee will be appointed by President Reed to start work on preparing the schedule for the teams in the league during the coming season.

CAN YOU AMUSE YOURSELF?

In the February Woman's Home Companion, Mary Louise Graham writes an interesting article entitled "A Child's Own Resources," in the course of which she makes the following comment on people who have not learned how to amuse themselves:

"A person who cannot amuse himself is, in the long run, constantly in the inferior position. He often finds himself in the awkward place of not being able to get along without people whom he does not thoroughly like, of having to accept favors from those of whom he prefers to be independent."

SHOEMAKING PLANT

For School of Reform—Boys May Make Footwear For Inmates of All State Institutions.

Frankfort.—Shoes for the inmates of the two State prisons and the School of Reform will be made at the School of Reform as soon as new machinery ordered by the State Board of Prison Commissioners is installed.

The boys of the institution are learning the shoemaking trade and have been making their own shoes for some time. The experiment has shown that they could be made there by hand of superior leather and workmanship for $1.49, whereas the commission has had to pay $1.55 wholesale. Some of the shoes are now being tried in the reformatory here. The plan may be extended to comprehend the manufacture of shoes for the inmates of all State institutions.

The experiment of buying cattle and hogs and butchering them at the reformatory has proven so successful that the Prison Commissioners announced that they will extend the plan to the Eddyville penitentiary and the School of Reform.

WHERE'S MOTHER?

When father came from work at night, Before he'd wash his hands and face Or hang his hat upon the peg, His glance would wander 'round the place.

And if dear mother's sunny head Was not within his vision's ken, He'd search for her from room to room, Upstairs and down and all, and then He'd stop and ask, "Where's mother?"

But if he found her in her chair, He'd pitter off about the lot, And pick a mess of early greens, Or fix a chicken for the pot; He'd mend a fence, or set a hen, Or do some other homely chore, With only now and then a glance Toward the half-open door That seemed to ask, "Where's mother?"

When father left us sorrowing He followed her within a day; And while we laid white flowers around His smooth-brushed hair, as white as they

We could but think that when the light And beauty of that wondrous place Burst on his newly quickened gaze He must have raised an eager face and simply asked: "Where's mother?"

REVIEW THE "EMPEROR" FROM SERVICE?

According to a German dispatch "the Hamburg-American Line, in spite of earlier denials say that the boilers of the 'Emperor' have proved unsatisfactory, and that complete rebuilding is necessary in order to reduce the excessive coal consumption and to increase the speed of the vessel."

It is said that the builders by their contract were required to compensate the company for the compulsory retirement of the "Emperor" from service, and will have to pay about $1,500 for every day she is laid off.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

To find out the monthly salary of the teacher it is only necessary to divide the annual salary by twelve. The teacher who receives $320 a year gets $26.66 per month and there is no other really fair way to figure it.

Hugo Munsterberg says that America is the only country in the world that gives the education of the young into the hands of the lowest bidder. Somehow, we Americans are slow to learn the real value of the good teacher.

It is the constructive work that counts—whether in the school, in the home, in the editor's sanctum, in the pulpit, or in the shop. It is easy to criticize but that is a species of egotism and would better be supplanted by synthetic processes.

Wendell Phillips once said: "Education is the only interest worthy of the deep, controlling anxiety of the thoughtful man," and we naturally conclude if the man is not thoroughly interested in the subject he is not thoughtful.

A school teacher recently received the following note from the mother of one of her pupils:

"Dear Miss. You write me about whipping Sammy. I give you permission to beat him up any time he won't learn his lesson. He is just like his father, an you hev to beat him with a club to learn him anything. Pound nole into him. Don't pay no attention to what his father says, I will handle him."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one and one-half cures that science has been able to cure in all stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars to any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CENEY & CO., Toledo, O. FOR CHRONIC COUGHS

Milton, Pa., Woman Has Found a Remedy.

Mrs. Howard Wagner of Milton, Pa., says: "I had a bad cold for months, and would cough every night until midnight. I consulted a doctor and took two kinds of medicine but got no relief. Vinol was recommended and after taking it a week I could sleep all night without coughing once. I continued its use and now have a fine appetite, never felt better and my cough is entirely gone."

It is a well known fact that when a person is run-down, stomach out of order, or the system overloaded with waste matter, vital resistance is lowered and colds and coughs are easily contracted.

The safest and surest method we know to overcome this condition is by taking our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. In the most natural manner Vinol tones up the digestive organs, promotes a hearty appetite, enriches the blood, and as a specific for chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles Vinol is unexcelled.

Try a bottle of Vinol on our offer to return your money if it fails to help you. J. C. Pecor, Druggist, Maysville. P. S. For rough, scaly skin, try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

SALLEE STICKS

Premier Pitcher Has No Intention of Signing Federal League Contract.

Harry Sallee, the well known Hugginsport baseball player, went to Cincinnati last week, where he conferred with Miller Huggins, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, with which team Harry has been the leading twirler for the past two seasons. A report had gained circulation that an effort was being made by the new Federal baseball league to induce Harry to sign a contract with them. Sallee admits that he has been approached with flat offering offers by representatives of this organization, but that he has no intention of "jumping."

The great left hander talked terms with Manager Huggins, but has not yet signed, because he has not received his official notification from the Players' Fraternity to go ahead. That will be out in a few days and then Sallee will be free to put his signature to a St. Louis contract for the coming season. He will get an advance in salary, on account of his good work last year. He looks in splendid condition and Huggins counts on him for some excellent pitching this season. Sallee returned to Hugginsport to remain until reporting time at St. Augustine, where the Cardinals will work out.

DRAG MAKES GOOD ROADS.

(Owensboro Messenger.) Hearing the admonition and warning of D. Ward King, the promoter of the "split-log drag," the farmers in all sections of Daviess County have worked and worked conscientiously on their roads, with the result that not in recent years have the county roads been in such splendid shape as at the present time.

While the farmers are availing themselves of the drag, Supt. Davis, of the street cleaning department, is busy with the good road promoter on the streets of Owensboro. He said Saturday that "he liked it better every day." Not in recent years have the streets of Owensboro been in such splendid condition at this particular season. Supt. Davis attributes it all to the split-log drag. Streets that were formerly veritable quagmires have undergone a complete transformation and the ravages of the winter will have no ill effects on them, as was formerly the case in the event of a severe winter.

Mrs. Martin took up the subject of Municipal Abattoirs, introduced in the minutes, by saying it properly belonged to Home Economics, for we could not conserve the interest of the Home without pure, wholesome food, and we could not have that without modern abattoir methods; that meats entered largely into our daily menus and that without proper inspection and sanitation they were reeking with germs and impurities. Mrs. Martin told of very revolting conditions she had found in slaughter-houses she had visited. She impressed upon housekeepers the importance of a knowledge of food values in order to safeguard the health of their households. She spoke of woman's position in the Home, where she was the intelligent, economic, sympathetic partner upon a perfect plane of equality, and the antithesis to this picture was that of the careless, indifferent wife who allowed the means provided for the maintenance of the Home to be dissipated in a slothful, wasteful manner. She impressed the fact that indiscriminate charity fostered vagrancy; that charity should be given in systematic channels. She advocated domestic science should be taught in the schools, but very eloquently declared that sex hygiene, if taught at all, should be taught at the mother's knee. She spoke of the wonderful aid to housekeeping through electrical appliances and cited the case of a Mrs. Patterson of New Jersey who had dismissed three maids and run her house beautifully with these electrical aids. Mrs. Martin's practical, interesting and forceful talk was listened to by an audience of intelligent thoughtful women, and much good must result from it, for the home is the most interesting the most profitable study for woman. Soomon describes the perfect woman as "she who looketh well after the ways of her household." She can not do this without a knowledge of the great issues of the hour.

CITY TUBERCULAR HOSPITAL

For Maysville—Citizens Start Movement to Establish Institution Where Consumptives May Have Isolated Treatment.

Recognizing the necessity for isolating tubercular patients, in order to stop the spread of the great "White Plague," some of Maysville's good ladies are interesting themselves in a movement to establish a hospital to take care of that class of incurable who have no means of assisting themselves. It has been an enforced custom here either to leave this class of patients in their homes, surrounded by the very poorest accommodations for their treatment, and thereby endangering other members of their families; or to send them to the Alms house that has no special apartments for them there to mingle with, and jeopardize the health of those whom circumstances compel to remain in this institution.

Maysville has always responded nobly when its attention was called to a worthy cause, and here is certainly one that merits the helping hand of every citizen.

A canvass amongst a few of our merchants showed that they were interested and willing to assist in any way suggested, and the ladies have called a meeting for this evening at 7:30 o'clock at Miss Jessie O. Yancey's office to formulate a campaign looking towards the establishing, as a permanent institution, a tubercular hospital for the City of Maysville.

THE PROGRESS OF THE Independent Warehouse!

Is evidenced by the fact that we are holding all our old customers and gaining many new ones. This is due to the manner in which we conduct their business for them. Our efforts are always in the interest of the seller and the average of $19.17 made by George Wilson, Adams county, on 3,445 pounds, and the average of L. M. Morgan, Mason county, $17.92, show that we get results. One basket reached $25 and several went past $20. The experience our factor has had gives us the right to say "We Lead; Others Follow." ELECTRIC SIGNS!

The distinguishing air of quality which a first-class Electric Sign gives to a store is the element which gives a sign its greatest value as an advertising medium and investment. The impression it makes is good. It blazes forth to the public that there is business enterprise, merchandise and methods up-to-date. It affects the entire atmosphere of the business district. The stranger says, "It is a live town," and publishes it abroad. It is the Sign of the Times.
